

Onlymyhealth.com announces the 2nd edition of HealthCare Heroes Award

January 28th, 2022: After the huge success of 1st edition, Jagran New Media's Health and lifestyle portal, Onlymyhealth.com is all set to host the second edition of The HealthCare Heroes Award on February 4th, 2022. In this virtual ceremony, OnlyMyHealth.com aims to recognize, applaud and honour individuals and institutions that have been on the frontlines of fighting the pandemic in the country.

The outbreak of Covid-19 engulfed the entire nation in anxiety and fear. Amidst these testing times, positive stories of resilient people and organizations who are fighting the pandemic to make India strong again, need to make headlines. The HealthCare Heroes awards is an attempt in the direction to salute these 'Corona-Warriors' whose selfless service, initiatives, altruistic spirit and a never say die commitment helped save lives during the unprecedented pandemic.

Bringing this major virtual event especially in such unprecedented times, Megha Mamgain, AVP & Business Head, Health & Lifestyle Verticals, Jagran New Media said, "Despite the cruel second wave of the pandemic that left our country scarred, the stories of courage, compassion, duty and service to humanity from across the country that the nominees of Healthcare Heroes Awards, 2022 bring, will give faith to society that all is not lost. India is rising again, rebuilding again, thanks to the efforts and will of our Covid Heroes. It is our duty, as a health publication, to celebrate them and not just focus on 'problems'. These awards give us this opportunity. We are filled with gratitude to find the support of the best names in healthcare and policy who join us as jury for this initiative. I urge everyone to spend some time getting to know our nominees and to vote for them."

In order to salute the efforts of those who have contributed greatly during these time, a separate microsite has been created with all the details- <https://www.onlymyhealth.com/events/healthcare-heroes-awards>
